Family Information (F)

Family Information. Residents of Washington State under the age of 25 must provide information about at least one parent or legal guardian, preferably both. This information is required to determine residency classification. Omission of parent/guardian information will result in classification as a nonresident.

All applicants are urged to respond to as many questions in this section as possible. Family information provides context for better understanding an applicant's educational environment and circumstances. The information you provide in this section will not disadvantage you in the admission process in any way.

	Criminal History (CH)
	By signing this application (Question SS-1), you agree to immediately notify the Office of Admissions should there be a change of circumstances that affects the accuracy of your answer to CH-1 between the date you submit your application and your first day of classes.
CH-1.	Have you ever been convicted of or adjudicated to be guilty of a violent felony offense, required to register as a sex offender by any legal authority in the U.S. or any other country, or are any charges involving a violent felony or sex offense pending against you at this time?
	○ No ○ Yes If you answered yes, go on to question CH-2.
CH-2.	List all the offenses and/or pending charges, the date of each offense/charge, and the date of each conviction/adjudication. Also, describe the circumstances surrounding each offense/charge and if you wish, you may provide a statement as to why you believe this information should not be a cause for concern about the safety of the university community.
	NOTE: The UW reserves the right to request additional information related to any of your criminal matters. Answers to these questions will be used primarily to decide what support students may need to succeed at the UW. Please let us know if there are any special arrangements or restrictions we need to know about in order to accommodate your attendance.
	Checklist (CL)
CL-1.	Checklist
	I understand that a complete application, and ALL of the following materials, must be submitted by the application deadline:
